

Those promises often come at a very high price, the viewers family, job, reputation peace of mind, and quite often freedom. We also dishonor God. PFM is not a fix, but a helping hand on a difficult road to freedom.

Once I got out of prison, I was welcomed back to the PFM meetings with open arms. Its as if I never left. Some of the faces are different but the feelings, friendship and support are all still there and alive. If you want to get rid of the grip of pornography in your life PFM is a good start and a future that promises to be there for you.
